Because user satisfaction is all that matters

A few days ago, I subscribed to RocketCDN which has

I recently also switched from Cloudflare to significantly improved various metrics that I was not able to optimize.

The technical support was GREAT to help me. BRAVO and THANK YOU!!!

Marie-Aude Bourson

RocketCDN and all I can say is WOW. RockedCDN blew me away, it's not only more stable, from what I can say now, it's also way faster, at least for my usecase! And about half the Price of Cloudflare Plus!
