4 stocks we are watching 🧐

1. Costco \(COST\): Last week, our partners at MyWallSt recommended Costco as the stock of the month for February 2022. Costco is a solid company that has managed to grow and retain members through several economic downturns and business disruptions. We see a lot of good things about Costco and that is why we are adding it to our watchlist.
2. Shopify \(SHOP\): Shopify reports its earnings on Wednesday and our friends at the Motley Fool think it is an unstoppable e-commerce stock to buy this year. We are watching to see what the company has to say on its earnings call. If you have gotten your complimentary Motley Fool Stock Advisor subscription, you can watch or read why Shopify may be the e-commerce stock for your portfolio this year.

Nvidia \(NVDA\): Over the last year, Nvidia has been a personification of “Real Gs move in silence”. Between February 2021 and January 2022, the stock was up more than 78%. The company designs graphic processing units for the gaming and professional markets and is well-positioned to win the behind the scenes war of the metaverse regardless of whoever wins between Meta (FB) and the other ten thousand companies working on it. The company also has its earnings call on Wednesday and we will be watching.

4. Fiverr International \(FVRR\): Analysts and investors expect Fiverr to report a year-over-year increase in earnings on Thursday. The company’s revenue has tripled in the last three years thanks to work-from-home. However, growth has been slowing as pandemic restrictions wane and the stock has suffered for it. We are watching to see what results Fiverr posts at its earnings call on Thursday.

What we are reading this week

We are reading the Motley Fool’s deep dive into Paypal here. Paypal is a great company that has gotten clobbered in the last 4 months, losing a little over half of its value. If Paypal is on your watchlist or you are a shareholder you can read the analyst spotlight article with your complimentary Stock Advisor Subscription.

What we are watching this week

We are rewatching a class from last year’s Bamboo Bootcamp with MyWallSt Chief Investor, Emmet Savage, on how to pick High Growth Stocks. We think there are a lot of buying opportunities thanks to the volatility in the market and a little refresher before we go out to splash some cash won’t hurt.
