Evening with Heroes

What would it have been like to be present at the Alamo during the siege leading up to the battle? Join the Alamo for a special, after-hours theater where you'll witness the events and conversations that took place the evening before the final attack.

Our 15th annual Evening With Heroes takes place after the Alamo is closed to the public, allowing you to experience the grounds like you never have before. A guide will lead your group through nine candlelit scenarios as you witness history unfold.

Tours will depart every 15 minutes, with the first tour beginning at 6:00 p.m. Each tour will last approximately 45 minutes. Ticket sales open to the public on Monday, February 7, but are open to members now! Buy today for your best choice of time slots and a discounted member price.
