

URL: <https://www.tntech.edu/about/traditions.php>

Date accessed: March 2, 2022

Traditions at Tennessee Tech

Tennessee TECH

About Academics Admissions Student Life Research Athletics Express

COVID-19 Reporting and Information • HEERF I, II & III

Donate Apply Visit

TRADITIONS AT TENNESSEE TECH

- About Tennessee Tech
- Mission and Vision
- Accreditation and Memberships
- Facts and Figures
- History of Tech
- Traditions at Tech

Awesome Eagle

The beloved mascot for Tennessee Tech. Through the years, our mascot has gone through three name changes and numerous costumes. Golden Eagle was the original name in 1962-1974. The name changed again in 1975 to "Evel Eagle" referring to Evel Knievel because of the daredevil stunts performed at games. In the late 1970s, "Tommy" was actually the struttin' Eagle logo, rather than a suited mascot. "Tommy Tech" came from the "TT" on his sweater. In 1985, the final name change was made to Awesome Eagle. Awesome Eagle is a two-time, consecutive UCA National Championship title winner (2014-2015). The campus celebrates Awesome Eagle's birthday each year on February 14 with music, giveaways, cupcakes, and lots of fun!

Blizzard