

VIRTUS

Benefit Dinner Show

Help send our scholars to Honor Choirs and the Heritage Festival!

You won't want to miss this delightful evening of individual and group performances by scholars and special guests!

Saturday, November 9th

5:30 Reception

6:00 Authentic Mexican Dinner with live music

6:45 Doors Open for General Seating

7:00 Benefit Show

A silent auction will include desserts, goods, & services provided by the choir members. Please bring cash or checkbook.

*Auction proceeds will directly benefit the scholar who provided the item.

NOTE: Dinner ticket sales close at midnight Wed 11/6

Ticket & Donation options:

CLOSED: Presidential Seating Dinner & Show $50

John Adams Academy - Roseville

1 Sierra Gate Plaza, Roseville - inside the Jefferson Building

The whole Virtus choir is scheduled to compete in the San Francisco Heritage Music Festival in March 2020

Select individuals within our choirs qualify to travel and participate in 3-day Regional Honor Choir, All-State Honor Choir, and/or Divisional (multi-state) Honor Choir experiences.

Tickets	Price	Fee
Presidential Seating Dinner & Show (Sold Out) Front and center dining seats. Authentic Mexican Dinner with live music and show. Arrive at 5:30 for a reception and sit down dinner.	$50.00	$0.00	Sold Out
Sponsorship Seating Dinner & Show (Sold Out) Up close & personal dining seats. Authentic Mexican Dinner with live music and show. Arrive at 5:30 for a reception and sit down dinner.	$35.00	$0.00	Sold Out
Dinner & Show (Sold Out) Authentic Mexican Dinner with live music and show. Arrive at 5:30 for a reception and sit down dinner.	$20.00	$0.00	Sold Out
Dinner and show (17 and under) (Sold Out) Authentic Mexican Dinner with live music and show. Arrive at 5:30 for a reception and sit down dinner.	$15.00	$0.00	Sold Out
Show ONLY (55 remaining) General Admission - bleacher seating (All ages) Doors open at 6:45 for bleacher seating	$10.00	$0.00	0 <input type="text"/>
Donation towards our trip!!! We're working to raise $25,000!!! We'd love your extra help of any amount!			GIVE NOW
			Total: $0.00

Restoring America's Heritage
by Developing Servant Leaders

John Adams
ACADEMY

Blankenbehler, Greg » Virtus™

Virtus™

- Home
- Virtus™
- Links
- Videos
- About
- Posts
- Schola Cantorum

In today's English, virtue usually refers to the moral goodness that a person possesses. But virtue hasn't always meant that. In ancient Greece, the word for virtue, arete, meant a special degree of excellence, especially in the fulfillment of one's purpose or destiny. Renaissance Italy refined this sense of the word to identify a musician that is exceptionally skilled, a virtuoso. The Roman word for virtue, virtus, had a different shade of meaning. It referred to courage and valor in the pursuit of glory for their country.

Each of these definitions apply to the members of our top choral ensemble, Virtus™. They not only represent the best of musical ability at John Adams Academy, but also the pinnacle of virtue. With their courage, dedication, persistence, and giving natures, they embody what it means to be servant-leaders in our academy and the greater community.