Russell Wilson with ResponseTEC mattress topper from MOLECULE

MOLECULE is trusted by elite athletes, including Russell Wilson, Alex Morgan, and Michael Phelps, to optimize their sleep and perform at peak levels. Newly developed by our engineers in collaboration with neurologists and sleep experts, the MOLECULE ResponseTEC™ mattress topper with Silver is designed to work with your existing mattress to maximize support, comfort, temperature regulation and provides antimicrobial protection for clean and restorative sleep. Our ResponseTEC™ foam provides advanced active support and contouring comfort without sacrificing breathability. More active than traditional memory foam, ResponseTEC™ foam provides uplifting, buoyant support and bounces back to its original shape, reducing the feeling of sinking.

Wake up refreshed each morning with Silver-Ion antimicrobial foam technology and MOLECULEshield™ antimicrobial cover protection that actively fights back against the growth of bacteria, fungus, and allergens. Simply place our ResponseTEC™ mattress topper on top of your existing mattress to experience the comfort of cooling, clean, and recovery-focused sleep.
