taylormadepolish More important than the work we do is who we get to do it with...

As hard as we hustled, stressed and tested ourselves with this event (and even with #bts challenges), it didn't feel like work 💕 Sharing an experience that brought people together to create and bond with clean beauty, in a time we all need connection, self-care and an increased focus on healthier options for personal products – this weekend couldn't have been more perfect!!

EVERY attendee made this event more special than we could have imagined. Its hard to put into words the feelings from being in-person with such a unique team and attendees! We are beyond honored to work with the @avadeanbeauty team with @sureitsjosh and @aj_mclean THANK YOU for believing in our concept. We are so grateful to work with your entire team!! We're looking forward to all that is to come and most certainly a magical next Saturday ✨✨✨
