This is the most modernized and sleekest of all Lagree Fitness equipment. The design allows for a far greater range and more options for body placement. The EVO is designed for rapid core and muscular endurance development. Instructions, exercises, routines, and live classes are available at www.lagreehome.com

Carriage: The 360-degree sidebar called the Ring of Fire wraps all the way around the carriage and is designed for more traction, engagement, control, and muscle activation. The pad is significantly smaller than that of the M3, about a 50% reduction, for a sleeker, more aggressive look.

Handles: The handles are integrated into the platform and appear to be a continuation of the platform on both the front and back of the EVO for added functionality.

Platform: Extension of the M3K platform (extended
