

Realize your professional possibilities with Compas

As stewards of our clients' media investments, Compas is committed to enforcing the highest standards of management, execution, effectiveness, transparency, and accountability to deliver flawless media buys at the best possible rates. For over 30 years, Compas has partnered with leading media providers and innovators to become the healthcare industry's largest procurement partner.

Our reputation and industry impact are based on commitment to continuous innovation, delivering unprecedented results for clients, and building deep supplier relationships.

Compas Culture

Giving back is a major part of our culture. Compas is committed to spreading good will by serving as trusted business partners, as well as being active stewards for our community through our agency-wide program called "All for Good." We are devoted to diversity, equity, and inclusion and are proud of the ERGs established by our employees, to advance outcomes and give voice to our people while aligning with the company's purpose and values.

If you have an appetite for making an impact in a meaningful industry, we will fill your days with equal parts challenge and support. Contact us at opportunities@compas-inc.com to discover new possibilities.

Compas is certified as a minority-owned-and-operated business by the National Minority Supplier Diversity Council – a leading corporate membership organization committed to advancing supplier diversity – which generates significant Tier 1 and Tier 2 Diverse Spend. We are also a member of the Diversity Alliance for Science (DA4S).
