★★★★★ Potty training win!

Reviewed in the United States on June 28, 2021

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

This watch helped so much for getting my 3 year old toddler excited about potty training. I don't usually make reviews but it was such a helpful tool I thought maybe some other parent would read this and figure it was worth a shot to try because it helped us so much! Looks just like his dads apple watch so he thinks it's the coolest and helps remind him to try to go or just reminded me to check in on him.

It definitely doesn't seem like it is a product that will last years and years but it has more than worked for what I hoped it would work for and then some! It goes so long without a charge too!

This watch works great. Like that you can start out with a 30 minute alarm with cute sound and progress up to an hour. Great training tool.

★★★★☆ Simple to use

Reviewed in the United States on August 31, 2020

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

This is a great, simple potty alarm watch. The default watch display is off (just black). It displays the time (press the side button once) and also displays the countdown of how much time is left until next potty alarm (press the side button three times). Setting the time and selecting the alarm interval was simple with the included instructions. You can select 30, 60, 90 minute, 2 hr, and 3 hr intervals and it automatically resets and begins counting down again each time the alarm sounds. The "alarm" is a tune that plays London Bridge (I think) or you can set it to vibrate - but not both. There is only one tune option. A nice feature over the original version of this watch (supposedly - I never had the original version) is that the alarm only sounds when the sensor recognizes that the watch is being worn, so you don't have to worry about the alarm sounding constantly. The display also shows the battery level (press the side button twice) and based on initial use seems it'll need to be charged every 2-3 days.

★★★★☆ Nice potty training watch

Reviewed in the United States on October 3, 2020

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I got this for my 2.5 year old who has started potty training. She isn't super fond of it yet as she prefers to just mess with it and doesn't quite get what the alarm is for. But she is slowly learning to leave it alone on her wrist. I think this would be a great product for maybe kiddos who are 3 years and older. But the watch looks nice on her wrist, isn't bulky, i simple to work, and durable with hose rough kiddos are. I would recommend!

★★★★☆ Needs a better band to hold the watch.

Reviewed in the United States on March 24, 2021

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

Works great but the band that holds the watch isn't for kids with small or skinny wrist. My son only used it for a day because he couldn't wear it properly. $20 down the drain.
