This is true regardless of how soon after submission you might attempt to request cancellation of the filing.

Please be aware that YOU HAVE NO RIGHT TO CONFIDENTIALITY in the information disclosed. See current trademark processing wait times (<https://www.uspto.gov/dashboard/trademarks/application-timeline.html#first-action>) to estimate when your application will be assigned to the examining attorney. The examiner's review may result in a letter (what we call an "office action") informing you of reasons that your application can not become registered. If you believe that these objections can be overcome, you must file a response by a strict deadline which is stated in the office action. If you or your counsel fail to submit a timely response, your application will be considered abandoned.
