The screenshot shows a sign-up form with the following fields: First Name, Last Name, Company, Phone, Email Address, and Password. Below the fields is a teal 'Sign Up' button. Underneath the button, there is a line of text: 'By clicking "Sign Up", I agree to the iContact Terms of Service and Privacy Policy.' Below that is a smaller line of text: 'A valid email address is required for account verification and access. iContact allows emails to be sent to only those who opt-in to receive them.'

Why iContact

Thousands of small businesses prefer iContact because it is simple and easy to use! Our email marketing tools are built to help you focus on what matters the most – sending great emails to engage with and grow your audience.

“Not only are we reaching MORE of our contacts, we are reaching them more often and with better technology and better results. The resources and amazing crew at iContact have made my job fun and exciting to do every day!”

Rachel Burrell
