

400MW PROJECT

MARK DORAZIO, President
August 9, 2011

PURPOSE

- Propose how Dorazio Enterprises, INC. will leverage the 400MW Project to strategically shape a San Antonio Green-Collar (G-C) workforce:
 - New Utility-Scale Construction Project
 - Follow-on Utility-Scale O&M
 - New Applied Sustainability Projects

- PHASE 1: Workforce Shaping
- PHASE 2: Applied Sustainability
- PHASE 3: Follow-on Projects
- SUMMARY

PHASE 1

- Creates a Workforce Training Roadmap
- Formal Training and OJT
 - Installation
 - Operation & Maintenance (O&M)

RESULT: new 3-5-year-duration G-C Jobs

50 Construction

10 PM & QC

10 Logistics

10 OH&S

PHASE 2

- Aligns workforce with Project Owner
- Readies local resource pool to perform follow-on O&M

RESULT: new indefinite-duration G-C Jobs

20 O&M
3 Mgt & Tech
3 Logistics
3 OH&S

PHASE 3

GLOBAL:

Proactively contribute to the wellness of the global community.

RECYCLING:

Maximize the value-added reuse of all process waste & byproducts.

and

COMMUNITY:

Strengthen the local economic base.

ENERGY:

Provide energy surety.

PHASE 3

- Waste-to-energy (W2e) Projects
 - Independent Power Production (IPP)
 - Multi-tier recycling and resale
 - 3-shift 24/7 O&M

RESULT: new indefinite-duration G-C Jobs

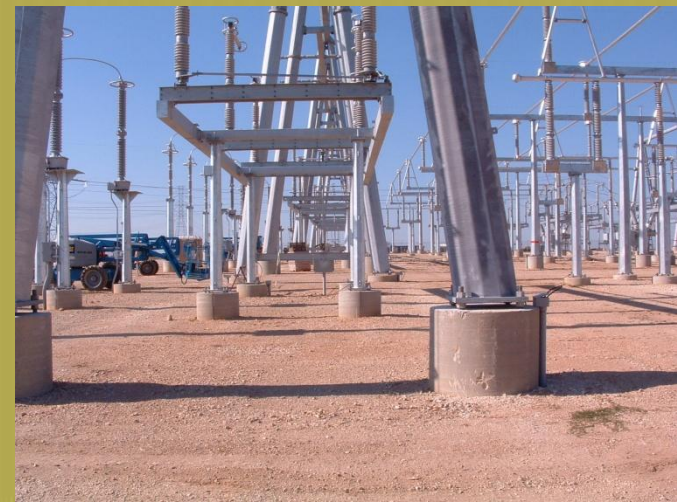

30 Construction (18 months)

75 Recycling

12 O&M

9 Mgt & Tech

6 Logistics & OH&S

SUMMARY

- Proposed 3-phase approach to strategically shape the local workforce
 - Uses 400MW Project to train workforce
 - Prepares workforce for follow-on O&M
 - Prepares workforce for W2e projects
- Proposed a means to improve San Antonio's Clean-Economy Rating

