

Father's Day is just around the corner, and we've got a round-up of dad-approved gift ideas, including a special deal on our Packs for your partner in parenting crime—because dads deserve some Fawn Design love too!

To celebrate Father's Day, the Fawn Design Packs are just $50 now through June 12! (or while supplies last) Designed with dads in mind, the Pack is a more masculine take on our existing line of diaper bags. The Fawn Design Pack is available in Brown or Black matte faux leather with antique gold-hued zippers and hardware. And while the Pack is perfect for adventures in fatherhood, the bag holds more than just diapers and bottles; the Pack features a laptop sleeve pocket and a variety of zippered pockets to stash all your gear and gadgets. It's perfect for travel, work, and play!
