Only my second time playing Royal Links Golf Club, this time with mpisarski01, rob1563 and famed02, was a great time Friday 2/1.

The last thing the starter is going to tell you is to be on the look out for the 100+ deep pot bunkers

This course is a blast to play. Every hole is interesting and challenging.

Service was excellent all day. . . .The clubhouse is very cool made to look like a castle. I thought the whole experience was fantastic and can't wait to play it again.

Check out the photos I just posted!

Last round of the Vegas trip coming up Royal Links Golf Club - real excited - have always wanted to play it when it's fast and firm. Loved this course the first time I played it 6 years ago in the Summer. It was lush and fun but did not play as much as a Links style course because of the lushness. Will be running a lot of shots today just hope I can avoid the brutal bunkers.
