Good day to you, Mike,

Based on the research I've been doing today, I'm very excited about the prospect of re-establishing a relationship with you and building a new one with CFI! Please forgive me being forward, but I have taken the liberty of sending you the attached as support for proposing the meeting you suggested we have with your colleagues from Driver Recruiting later this week.

Even though you've interacted with driver associates from South Africa, your colleagues probably have not. So, when anyone opens this PDF file and clicks on the thumbnails, the driver associate will introduce himself to the reader via a homemade video which I believe is far better than any blurb I could provide! I hope that you find these of great interest.

Again, by clicking on a thumbnail, I have included some commentary from Schneider staff who were directly and personally involved with our TPEP Programme. If you feel that including this is inappropriate, please let me know and I will send you an amended file. However, my intention was that your colleagues could hear from their peers about their experiences, and not get assurances third hand.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,

Rob
