I have long admired who you are, what you do, the passion you have for your work, the love of great ideas that is so evident in all of your ventures. From the books you magically find and ship to authors at the moment they need them most, to the amazing party you throw to bring the business book community physically together, to the breakthrough ideas you spotlight on ChangeThis, it all carries a stamp of excellence.

Personalized Customer Service

We understand that every order is unique, and often needs the flexibility that only a dedicated personal representative can provide.

Bestseller Reporting

We report all book sales run through Porchlight Book Company to The New York Times and NPD BookScan.

Book Customization

Whether it's part of training someone for a job, an add-on at a conference, or a holiday gift, we can customize books to make a lasting impression.

Bulk Book Pricing

We offer competitive discounts on bulk book orders, and an array of options for how to process them.

Custom Checkout

Our one-page order platform provides a quick and easy way to execute your pre-order campaign, book promotion, book club, or corporate gifting program.

Preorder Campaigns

We offer a wide variety of services to help authors and publishers capture preorders, and accurately report the sales when they ship.

Warehousing & Consignment

We have a robust retail platform, customer service team, and warehouse operation ready to be leveraged by those on less traditional publishing platforms.

Delivery Logistics

We excel at managing high-touch, large quantity orders on tight, specific timelines—including international shipments.

Mass Book Mailing

We excel at moving a lot of books at once, even if that means sending them individually to many hundreds or even thousands of different addresses.

Editorial Coverage

We not only move books, we immerse ourselves in them, attempting to understand the ideas and intent of the authors, and help spread those we believe in.

Advertising & Giveaways

We offer easy and effective advertising options for publishers and authors to get their books in front of, and literally in the hands of, avid readers.
