Executive Producer & Chief Videographer: Chris Schodt is a freelance journalist and video producer living in the East Bay of the San Francisco Bay Area. A graduate of the Berkeley School of Journalism, Chris started his career as a geologist in Minnesota before moving to the Bay to pursue video and media.

Social Media Specialist & Photographer: Iris Nolasco became involved in the agricultural space after a two-year service in the Peace Corps, where she worked to improve local farmers' livelihoods in Panama. She received her master's degree in International Environmental Policy from the Middlebury Institute of International Studies, where she also focused on sustainable agriculture and food systems.

Chief Designer: HyunJu Chappell, a former designer for The Washington Post, is principal of Magna Citizen Studio, which specializes in ethnographic field research, participatory design, visual journalism, and civic engagement.

Content Consultant: Merrill Perlman is an award-winning editor, trainer and coach who worked as an editor or manager of editors at the New York Times for 25 years. She has trained journalists, editors, writers and communicators through the Poynter Institute, private seminars and journalism and trade conferences.

Spanish Translator: Susana Vázquez is a freelance writer and translator/interpreter based in the Central Coast. She received her Bachelors from the University of California, Los Angeles, where she studied Spanish and Chicana/o Studies. She likes to talk about the beach, desserts, and, at the moment, how everyone needs to watch Rocketman (starring Taron Egerton).
