ABOUT

THE BUILD SHOW IS THE DESTINATION FOR PROFESSIONAL INSPIRATION AND CREATIVE IDEAS THROUGHOUT THE BUILDING PROCESS.

Our trusted content provides comprehensive and detailed techniques, catering to industry professionals seeking knowledge, homeowners seeking guidance, and hobbyists and DIY-ers seeking instruction. Inspired by the work of master builder Matt Risinger, The Build Show Network showcases how-to content, latest techniques, best practices, products and materials for residential and commercial building trades and beyond.

Matt handpicks the companies and products that he has successfully used in fine home building – and provides unbiased and real reviews and recommendations. Our sponsorship and advertising solutions are designed to deliver results, brand awareness, and engagement. Whether you're just getting started or looking to evolve. The Build Show has handcrafted offerings to suit your business style.
