Social Media Influence

The Build Show is the destination for professional inspiration and creative ideas throughout the building process.

THE BUILD SHOW ON YOUTUBE

The Build Show, a YouTube video series launched by master builder, Matt Risinger, is dedicated to building science and fine craftsmanship. Through his weekly videos, Risinger educates builders on the principles of building science in a practical way with trusted content that provides techniques, guidance, and instruction. He builds homes that are more energy efficient, durable, healthy, and comfortable than most new homes in America.

BUILDSHOWNETWORK.COM

Inspired by the work of master builder Matt Risinger, The Build Show Network showcases how-to content, latest techniques, best practices, products and materials for residential and commercial building trades and beyond.

Our trusted content provides comprehensive and detailed techniques, catering to industry professionals seeking knowledge, homeowners seeking guidance, and hobbyists and DIY-ers seeking instruction.
