★★★★★ You Can't Beat This!

I love that this is a dual functioning product. I have limited space, so having 2 different machines isn't an option. With this, I can just swap out a filter (which is super easy to do) and have an air purifier or humidifier - whatever I need most at the time. It's so quiet my cat who is afraid of everything sits beside it without any issues. I have a lot of animals inside and trees and plants outside, and since I started using this my breathing has been better and the usual allergy symptoms are a distant memory!!

★★★★☆ Not sure about this one

Reviewed in the United States on May 1, 2020

Verified Purchase

Instructions for assembly are super unclear. It comes with a power cord but no wall adapter. The base doesn't even lock onto the center cylinder and falls off easily so I'm scared to even try the humidifier function because it could potentially leak. It looks nice but I'm not sure of the functionality at this point.
