Subject: Account suspended

Hi John Doe,

We recently observed suspicious activity on your account john@acme.com. Therefore, we have suspended your account until you reach out to us. Please visit the following link to reactivate your account.

Phishing drills to the rescue

Just like a fire drill, Riot automatically runs the latest scams techniques on your team, to prepare them for what's coming. It's dangerous out there.

Now, phishing is like a fire. 🔥

Gotcha 👍

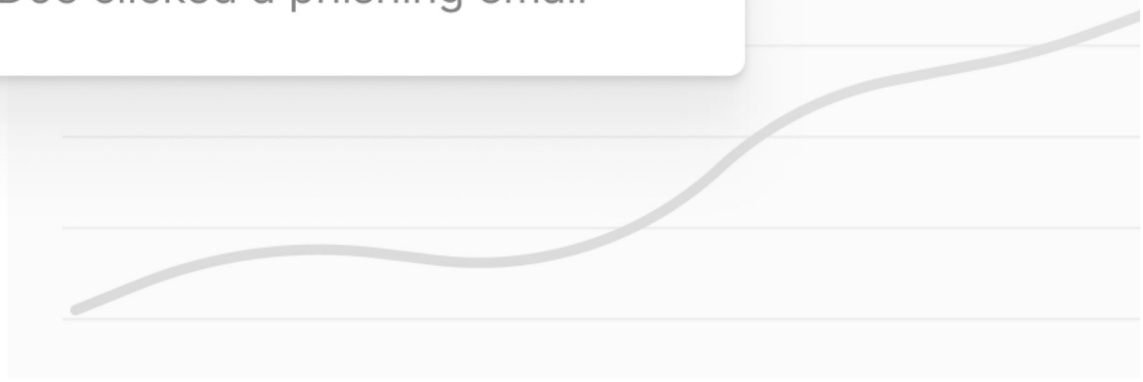

Now, what is phishing?

Most of the time it's an email. ✉️

A training your employees will love

We get it: trainings are annoying. Riot offers an interactive, tailor-made 5-minutes training your employees will actually enjoy and learn from.
