

Leading the way in understanding workforce risk

BlueCoat is a corporate risk management consulting firm

Whether you need internal investigations conducted discreetly, practical health security measures enacted, or custom workplace risk solutions put in place, BlueCoat is your expert resource.

ABOUT US

Solving complex issues, the right way

We believe that reputational harm, resulting from malicious or unintentional acts, is best mitigated through careful analysis and a well-defined fact finding program. We're focused on helping companies anticipate and resolve a broad spectrum of risks associated with their workforce and worksite security.

We're also well versed in the health security measures required to safely return to collocated space, using the "concentric rings" method of protection as practiced by the Secret Service for safeguarding individuals.
