★★★★★ Top notch skin scrubber
By Su Geo on Jan 04, 2020

This skin scrubber is top quality and made of stainless steel. This along with the face mask does wonders to your skin. You will feel fresh, invigorated, and smooth. I felt the skin was little irritated if you constantly scrub same area over and over, but nothing that lasted more than few hours. There are three modes based on what aspect you are using for. This is the best scrubber to remove the black heads. But use a magnifying mirror so you can watch closely. Highly recommended product.

Images in this review

(Disclaimer: the only incentive behind this review is purely/solely to spread the word because i personally rely a decent amount on customer reviews before purchasing, but, also because i've struggled with my skin legitimately being ripped up, scarred, and/or bruised for several days to weeks from other skin improvement "tools" and this is the only one that's actually lived up to it's claims lol.)

hope this helps!

The star rating is 4.5 out of 5 stars. A customer review from James Gill on October 6, 2019, is highlighted with a red box. The review is titled "Clean your pores perfectly" and describes the user's experience with the device. The review text is: "First of all, it looks so cool! Like it's a hi-tech gadget! I could not help myself and tried it the same day I got it. It works great! You have to be careful with choosing speed because it's pretty powerful on the last one. It goes with different heads, I tried like medium size one and I used it like everywhere on my face, nose, around my lips, forehead. You can feel how smooth your skin is after. I also used scrub just to make sure all the dirt and dead skin go away. I used to have stripes but they are good only for nose. So I'm in love with this little thing because I can use it all over my face!"

The product came in a branded package, complete with 5 nozzles, charging, filters and rubber bands. The device came already charged, so I immediately tried it, it works in 5 modes. For better effect, it is necessary to steam the skin of the face and for each cleaning area to use your nozzle. The widest nozzle is suitable for forehead cleansing, the middle nozzle for cleansing mixed and oily skin around the nose, the small nozzle is suitable for sensitive skin, it is cleaned nose, the oval nozzle is suitable for tightening and improving circulation, can be used in the chin area. The cleansing mode is selected individually, the nose I cleaned at the maximum mode, the rest of the face on 2-3 mode. It is important not to linger in one place more than 2-3 seconds-bruises can remain! After the procedure inside the nozzles remained a large number of skin contaminants and fat, the face was a little red, but after a couple of hours everything went through. I recommend the necessary things." Helpful? Yes (3) No (0).

★★★★★ Miracle cure for knee pain!
Reviewed in the United States on December 6, 2019
Verified Purchase

I've had knee pain for years and have tried every type of brace. Most of them don't do much other than help stabilize it, and even that is a stretch sometimes. These are different, they are firm with 3 sets of Velcro so they stay in place, and help support the knee. Then when you turn on the vibration, you can almost instantly feel comfort. You think that is the best, until you turn on the heat and then you are in heaven. These things made my knees feel free in a matter of minutes. I instantly felt pain relief and didn't want to take them off. The battery packs seem to last a very long time, I haven't found out how long exactly and I've had them on for over an hour at a time. It also comes with a very nice bag to store it all in, and the charger lets you charge both battery packs at the same time. Overall, this is an amazing tool for knee pain and I highly recommend it to anyone who has any type of pain!

The main review is from a user named 'TC', dated August 27, 2018, with a 5-star rating and the text: "This Product Really Works! Really! Reviewed in the United States on August 27, 2018. Verified Purchase. Rarely do I rate products online but this product deserves to be rated. I was experiencing extreme pain in my back due to L5 - L5 and T11 degeneration. I went on Amazon to look for a certain Doctor's belt and found the HailiCare Decompression Back Belt that happened to be an "Amazon Choice" for a much lower price than the Dr. Belt. I purchased it on a Friday and received it at my home on Sunday. Put it on and within 30 minutes I was feeling much better. I have used it for a week now, for about 3 hours a day and my back pain is essentially gone! You don't have to wear it all the time, about 30 - 60 minutes twice a day works for me, but I wear it anytime I am doing any lifting or physical work. The only down side I can report is that, while wearing it, you cannot bend as easily to pick up things, but that is a no-brainer trade-off for the relief it provides. If you are suffering from pain like I was, this belt is sure to provide the relief you're looking for. TC, Vancouver, Washington". The review has 239 helpful votes. ★★★★★ Powerful suction-Bruising
Reviewed in the United States on March 20, 2020
Verified Purchase

As you can see from the picture this little tool has many gadgets but is very simple to use. First use: BE WARNED THIS WILL LEAVE BRUISING WHERE YOU USE. (I did bruise so I applied Amicare to help reduce bruising. power was more than enough).
I'll have to wait till the morning to see how that worked out. This is to be expected because this device suction those pesky blackheads. I used the first setting and the suction The key is to keep moving the device, going over several times until clear. If you leave it in one place for too long it can be very uncomfortable. I'm glad I purchased and plan on trying it on my teens blackheads. ☺

Reviewed in the United States on December 11, 2019

The screenshot shows the Amazon product page for the 'Skin Scrubber Ultrasonic Blackheads Remover' by HalliCare. The review is from a 'Kindle Customer' with a 5-star rating, dated December 11, 2019. The review text states: 'I wasn't sure about these, seems like a gimmick so I held off on purchasing one. Finally did it and used it once so far with great results. My forehead tends to get dry and flaky in spots. I used this today and I can't believe how smooth my skin feels. I used it with a cleanser and then used with my moisturizer, as directed. Im going to try to use this a couple times a week and see if I keep getting great results. The only thing I find odd is that theres no power cord, its a usb charging cable. Its fine, I can charge it that way but I found it strange.' The product details show a 3.9 out of 5 star rating from 57 customer ratings. The 'Best sellers in Kindle eBooks' section is visible below the review, with a red arrow pointing to the 'Page 1 of 5' indicator.
