

WE ARE

A one of a kind service leader provider in janitorial industries for the Southern, Western and Mid Western regions of the country. We specialize in cleaning and labor tasks designed to fit all industries.

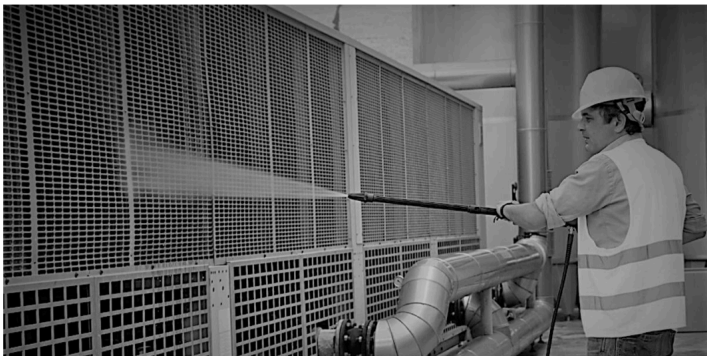

We have become synonymous with the highest quality craftsmanship whether at a construction site or in a financial institution. We strive to offer an end-to-end client experience with trained staff that delivers solid quality janitor services and diverse manual labor tasks.

We are deeply-ingrained in the BIG world of janitorial and labor craftsmanship and known for our commitment to our clients because of our dedicated pursuit in striving to transform our communities into healthy cleaner environments.

A lot has changed - technology, governments, world economies and the materials we use in our daily lives. But, one thing's remained unchanged, our dedication to doing the best janitorial work for all of the communities we serve.

The reason A-List clients come back to us.

You may no longer have to look further than MMI, we are America's leader in multi-industry steward and general labor craftsmanship. We innovate. We deliver. We keep an old fashion etiquette in today's continuously changing world so you may firmly rely on our brilliant craftsmen working in tandem for cities continuously evolving.
