Dear Sirs:

I, Shotaro Kamio, aka "Sho," for good and valuable consideration already received, hereby consent to the use and registration of my nickname, "SHO," as a trademark and/or service mark for use with the above-noted services and any natural expansion thereof anywhere in the world and, more particularly, with the USPTO. This consent applies to use and/or registration without regard to form, i.e. as either SHO or, more stylized, as SHŌ, and with or without an associated logo (collectively hereinafter "the SHŌ Mark"). It is also my understand that SHO means to soar or fly.

My consent is valid for the application filed contemporaneously herewith and any future application for the SHŌ Mark filed by the current applicant or its successor in interest.
