★★★★★ Great curling iron!

Reviewed in the United States on August 6, 2020

This curling iron is really great! I decided to get it, despite the fact that sometimes products look different on the Internet than when you finally received them. So, I took a risk, guess what? I was pleasantly surprised. Quality is excellent price. The packaging is very good and can be protected during transportation. The speed at which I received emails also exceeded my expectations! Please note that I received this product at a discounted price in exchange for an honest review. Although the price is discounted, I do not allow the views expressed in this review to be affected. Therefore, I always make sure that my comments remain balanced and accurate. thanks for reading.
