

Finances

We had $200 left in the bank, $15,000 in bills due in two weeks, no job, no paycheck in sight, and 7 kids to feed. And yet God STILL showed us how to get through the month. These articles are all about how to make "cents" out of setbacks and gain financial peace of mind no matter what kind of storm may be raging. Click here to read more...

Marriage

When stress is high, relationships can suffer. And we dealt with a LOT of stress, especially during the first two decades of our marriage. These articles give you a glimpse into those struggles, and the lessons we learned (sometimes the hard way) about priorities, sacrifice, and tender mercies that can give us all strength to keep going another day. ### Parenting

Parenting can be hard. But when your vision is clear and you build your home on true principles, some of today's cultural hardships can be avoided. And the ones that can't be avoided can be coped with more courageously. These articles share stories of my struggles with parenting and the hard but joyful lessons I learned along the way.
