Very Effective!

Reviewed in the United States on August 16, 2020

Our little satanic spawn would start barking at anything that moves the moment he got out and would not shut up. The neighbors who are normally very courteous had Sunday am as their um, alone time so the dog was allowed to bark.

Out of desperation I bought this and after nestling it in a tree at the fence line and pointing it toward the dogs favorite spot... I laid back and waited.

I am honestly shocked that this worked so well. We adopted our dog two years ago and we have tried countless training classes, thunder shirts, anti anxiety meds, etc. and NOTHING would make him stop barking at the mail man and the neighbors outside until I got this. He is a great dog otherwise and now this is a game changer. I HIGHLY recommend!!

Effective for 2 out of 3 dogs.

I have 3 dogs that have a hard time settling down when they're together. I wanted to try this to redirect. It immediately got their attention and I used the word "settle". My 2 smaller dogs stop barking if they even see it in my hand. They have learned the word "settle" means the beepy thing if they don't. My big dog is not as bothered by it. I wish it had the option to beep a few seconds longer to really get his attention. I have to work a little harder with him. Just getting 2 two out of 3 quiet is worth it though.

Stopped incessant barking as soon as I turned it on!

This teeny-tiny box does work! I was skeptical at first because it looks flimsy but it works on our 2yr old shih tzu. Who suffers from separation anxiety and therefore Barks, Howls, and Cries every time you leave her alone for even just 10 minutes. We wanted to try something humane and started with a non-shock collar. That seemed to just get her going more. We decided to give this a try and it seemed to work instantaneously. We turned it on the first time and were so pleased to come back and not hear her barking from down the street. It really is quite unbelievable. She is really happy when we come home so it does not seem to upset her or worsen her anxiety feelings.Worth trying it out and seeing if this stops your dogs behavior.

Now with no barking!!!

Works great!! I have used other ultrasonics in the past with varied results, worked on some dogs but not others? We have a dog that survived eating some rat poison a few years ago, and it doesn't really bark, it more screams. It was truly driving us crazy, this immediately calmed our dog down and our nerves too. I was concerned when i bought this as i have two large dogs and this nervous dog, this nervous dog being the biggest barking offender, but honestly when all three are excited and barking it is pure chaos!! This WORKED!! I have used in inside as well as outside, it works outside when its inside! Very happy with this purchase!!

Plus I'm sure it takes time to cut down on the habit of barking constantly.

"It's high quality material; seems very durable; non-slip; easy to install and stays put. It's really worth the money. I ordered this after the second night. By the 4th night we had it setup. Our dog began to bark, did so about 3 times... We set it up outside in the corner of our yard, the little red light goes off and it makes the sound which stops them immediately. Before stopping and just whimpering. They turn their heads and looks at me questioningly, then they go about their business quietly. Excellent hooks at an excellent price!

Now he is completely silent at night, unless he needs to go out to potty. Then he'll whimper a bit to let us know. Fast Forward 1 week and we are sleeping through the night."

★★★★★ I have to say that this effectively stopped her cold....

Well let me tell you how my little Aussie used to be. Barked at everything. Every animal, leaf, child, bicycle that went by and we live close to a couple schools so it's very active on our street. And she would attack the windows and door like a rabid crazy dog when the mailman came by. She would not let people leave the house lol.

I have to say that this effectively stopped her cold.... And we got our sanity back! I can't speak for the other similar markets because they all seem to look the same, but I am considering purchasing another as a spare. It blinks green to indicate that it's working and red when it's emitting sound. Worth trying it out and seeing if this stops your dogs behavior.

Now for the first time in his life, she's finally trained to BE QUIET. At night, Aussie will seldomly wander by and she will sound off to defend his territory. Now she barks much less. As soon as she starts barking, the sonic dog bark control cranks up and she quickly SHUTS UP. My sanity has returned. Thanks

This really works! My 4 dogs are very quite now. They barked at everything & sometimes at nothing. I have been having trouble training my dog to not bark at every guest, this is getting the job done. I have 4 little puppies, and they like to bark at everything. Though they look cute, their barking is annoying sometimes. So I bought this to control their barking, when their barking bother us and our neighbors. I only turn on when they are out of control and it did works perfectly.

My Mastador is a gentle giant with a BIG bark. Our neighbor's dog is tiny and sweet and loves to come up to the fence to say "hi" and when our big guy barks at him it sounds so scary. One quick press of the and a sharp "no!" command and the barking stops immediately AND he comes. Before this device it was hard to get his attention if he was really into whatever he was barking at because his bark is SO big and loud!
