Not happy with this item. Some of the spools did not match and a few did. So you would think they all should match together so you can use the same color and your using your sewing machine. The needle threader looked like it was sticky like chocolate was spilled on it so I won't be using that. Scissors are very cheap don't even cut! I got this mainly for the thread but they are super tiny so they will run out fast. You better off buying them at Walmart or another store of your choice that sells thread because these are not worth the money.

★★★★☆ Thread and bobbins don't all match

The main problem is that the set is supposed to have spools of thread with matching pre-wound bobbins. But there are six spools and six bobbins that don't match anything. Which makes those bobbins pretty useless. Also the thread feels quite cheap, the seam ripper doesn't work at all, and I've seen party favors of higher quality than the needle case. I haven't tried the needles themselves. The scissors work fine.

It's a cute kit and I love the colors, but the bobbins get stuck in my machine. The thread isn't that good of quality. It's ok to use for a few stitches, but I wouldn't recommend for making masks or for heavy sewing.

loved all the colors and the bobbins that matched ...wish it had come with an extra, empty bobbin but for the most part, it helped with what I needed as a variety

Awful. The thread caught every single time I try to use it in my machine, also I had a throughout both seem ripper in the scissors for being too dull and not being able to cut anything. You could even see how uneven the blades were just by looking! Do not recommend and sad I wasted money that could have been spent on reputable thread.
