Welcome to our Patreon!

Our names are Mackenzie and Spenser and we are building our dream debt-free shipping container home. Our home will be completely off the grid. We will utilize solar for all of our power needs and build a rainwater catchment system to meet our water demands. Even our internet is not connected to the grid. We will be doing everything ourselves and learning as we go. Becoming as self-reliant as we possibly can is the goal!

We moved from Florida to Texas on March 1, 2018 after selling our cars, selling our home, and quitting our jobs. In order to make this dream a reality, we saved up our money for years. We even sold our home to cover building expenses once we got to Texas. So far, we have converted an old barn into a solar storage closet, set up and are using our DIY solar system with Tesla batteries, set up off grid internet, and have even made the foundation for our shipping container home. The containers are now on the foundation and our dream off grid sustainable home is finally becoming a reality. This is only the beginning!

We want to share our journey with as many people as possible but we need to Show more
