Benefits

LC BASE is a premium-quality meal replacement providing an ideal macronutrient ratio of healthy fat, muscle-building protein, and low carbohydrate. Scientifically-designed to aid in activating your ability to burn fat for energy, LC Base offers a subtle vanilla flavor, perfect for layering with additional Unicity products. With more convenience and cost savings over a typical meal, LC Base takes the guesswork out of what to eat to achieve your goals and provides a solid foundation to build upon for nutritional success.
