- Ab roller wheel uses a spiral alloy spring steel with High & Even elasticity, self-rebound and smart brake. It provides smooth resistance when rolling forward, and provides rebounding power backwards. It is easier and less laborious than ordinary abdominal wheels. Even beginners who are not strong enough can easily use them, especially for women.
- The ultra-wide, spherical wheel allows users to carve left or right to engage all sets of abdominals, including oblique muscles. The increased wheel width offers stability and balance.
- The Ab wheel is made of high-quality plastic and stainless steel rods for durability, safety and silence.
- The side end is equipped with a noise reduction device, and the outer layer is made of high-density sound-proof material, with double noise reduction protection.
- These ergonomically designed non-slip handles are removable for easy transport and storage.
