MZOO Quilted Fabric Hammock Two Person with Spreader Bars Heavy

This is an extremely comfortable and well made hammock. I have not had any issues with it like some other reviewers have mentioned, so I consider myself lucky. It handles the weight of my daughter and I without a problem, and seems like it should last for some time. I don't leave it outside when I'm not using it to make sure it lasts and doesn't get prematurely ruined by the elements. It's a very good, colorful hammock.

I have been thrilled with this hammock, the quality was way more than I had expected. It drains fast from rain, and has been out on the dock more than two months now. The pillow is super comfortable, more than any other hammock I had before. This was a great purchase and I would totally buy it again.
