Looking for a "herb" grinder? This is the one. NO CAP.

Reviewed in the United States on November 4, 2020

Let's get real, that fresh "oregano" is kinda tricky sometimes. This little device absolutely does the job. Most I've gone is around 7 grams and with literally a few pulsations, in 15 seconds I had it all grinded up. Best for price and if anyone sees this comment. This one is it chief.

Not battery operated. Works for CBD flowers!

Reviewed in the United States on November 8, 2020

It works great for industrial hemp flowers. Not sure if the THC Cannabis is too sticky but I'm impressed with the performance.

FYI: This is not battery operated. It does require being plugged in during operation.

Good for "herbs" and spices

Works as it should. Use it for grinding "herbs" and it grinds my "herbs" just right. Only run it for a couple quick burps to grind them to perfection.

Can be used for other herbs**

This device is really good for shredding herbs including the medical one you smoke. A 9/10, the only problem is not really portable as I thought it would be based on the pictures.

The Perfect Grinder

Reviewed in the United States on December 10, 2020

At first I was a little skeptical because the description stated "coffee" grinder. As I read further, there is so much more you can utilize this product for. I am not a coffee drinker. I wanted this product for my spices. I am a home cook and must have my kitchen gadgets. It's the right size and works perfectly for herbs/spices.
