Why do We Focus on Speaking for Professional Women?

Innovation Women is a “visibility bureau”, shining a spotlight on professional women.

Innovation Women helps connect event managers to awesome speakers and experts who just happen to be women.

No more “token woman”. Our goal is gender-balanced panels and equal visibility opportunities for women.

How does Innovation Women Connect Speakers and Event Managers

Event managers get their own free accounts. They can post Calls for Speakers and connect directly to speakers to invite them to speak.

Speakers pay only $100/year, a fraction of what a PR agency would cost or what a traditional bureau would take in speaker fees.

Tell your story. Share your passion. Public speaking helps you connect with more customers, potential partners, and funders.
