

Find Speakers

Searching for the perfect speaker (or speakers) for your event(s) is never easy. Finding expert speakers who can address your topic and represent the true diversity of your industry takes lots of research.

At Innovation Women, if you are looking for speakers, you get a complimentary (100% free) account to browse our database and find female speakers. (Sign up here.) This helps you organize gender-balanced and inclusive events and conferences. Unlike a traditional speaker's bureau, we take no part of any speaker's fee (if you compensate speakers). You negotiate directly with the speakers.

Our database includes speakers covering a wide variety of topics. You can search for industry specific speakers, view all their information and videos to let you see how amazing they are. If you can't find the perfect speaker on the IW website, the IW team will help you track down some options. Just ask.

To see our speakers in action, visit our Innovation Women Speak! Webinar Series and stay tuned for upcoming events or view past recordings.

Testimonials

“Claritza was great! Innovation Women was the first place I turned when I was looking for an inspiring, engaging speaker. It's great to have such an easy way to find smart, talented presenters in the technology field.”

— Katy Tynan, founder and chief talent strategist at Liteskip Consulting Group, and the leadership track chair for InteropITX.

“Thank you so much for your help! We reached out to Tanya and she's going to participate in the panel. 100% wouldn't have found her without Innovation Women. I'm glad to be able to have a diverse panel and also to put someone of her caliber up on the panel, we have a super star panel now.”
