★★★★☆ Expect NO fullness of color or blossoms touching each other !

Reviewed in the United States on July 9, 2020

Verified Purchase

Expected to add some color to some planted outdoor areas, pots etc. BUT had to laugh when opened them to find very tiny flower blooms (1/4") that when spread out look just scrawny and imperfect. Should have realized that 12 stems at this low price would not offer anything like the color and thickness in the website picture displays ! Will not return for the low prices involved (return shipping $ not feasible) and will try to place them in a small indoor vase with lots of greenery to add some flower color....again, nothing like advertised except for one picture of a single stem that shows how far apart the tiny flowers are. Will learn from this purchase !

★★★★★ Realistic looking flowers

I love a flower bed but don't like the constant care real flowers require in Texas summer heat, so I decided to try these faux flowers that are supposed to be able to stand up to the sun's UV rays. So far I'm very pleased with them. They look real and are holding up to the wind and heat in my area. And I don't have to water them! I'm going to purchase more in other colors.

Like them all very much, put them instead of real flowers and plants because don't get a chance to water when they need it. Colors are still bright.

The flowers look very real. They look really nice on my backyard. The packaging is really good. I just need to fluff them a bit and they're good to go.

Great deal for the price!
