ABOUT THIS

GOOGAN SQUAD REVOLVER

When the Revolver calls, fish answer. This topwater terror brings em' in with a bang - plopping, disrupting & jittering with one thing on its mind: crushin' chunks. Wanna be a cowboy? Pack a Revolver.

Product Specs:

4.5"

ROTATING FIN:

- Distinct plopping noise
- Center-placement draws strikes to hooks
- Causes the body to jitter on retrieve

FLAT TAIL: Prevents rollover, no matter how the lure is retrieved

WEIGHT DISTRIBUTION: Revolver lands upright on every cast

Armed with more noise than New Year's Eve, the Revolver puts fish on notice. When the mondos move in, the rotating fin at its center paints the hooks as the clear target. The body jitters as the fin rotates - adding visual action to the chaos.

Topwater plopping baits have been around for decades. We made major innovations to evolve this category for the new millennium. Flattening the tail and distributing the weight ensures the Revolver lands upright on every cast. This puppy won't roll over, no matter how it's retrieved. Tie this beaut on and stop chasin'. Start catchin'.

- Googan Squad Muscle Rod
- Moderate Speed Casting Reel
- Monofilament or 40-65lb Braid

THIS THING WORKS!

Right of I want to say this thing works! I have been fishing my private pond on my property for over 4 months without so much as a bump on the line, I've fished every bait imaginable, every color. Bottom. Mid column, top water, every different retrieve I can think of and no luck, was beginning to th...

Got this when it first came out with no luck. Threw the perch version yesterday and was able to get two good fish. Later I threw it out and I'm not sure what hit the lure, though when that fish struck it broke the fin that makes the plow/whistle sound. The lure is useless now and just pulls like a top water walker. The hard plastic fin does not hold up.

Broken fin

Second cast, I landed it on the edge of the bank in the grass. The fin that spins the thing snapped off. Bad cast obviously and I may have just gotten really unlucky with how it landed but makes me question the durability a little. Have not gotten a bite on either of the other two I own.
