Product Description

Springform pan is essential for any baker

Whether it is the spinach and feta pie on the menu or the rich chocolate layer cake, it is very easy to bake in this pan, and you will want to know how to bake it without it. When you bake delicious food to perfection, just pull the buckle to keep the side away from the bottom of the pan, leaving your cake or pie intact.

These spring pans are made of durable carbon steel and can be baked repeatedly with the same effect. The sturdy structure also prevents warping, so cakes and pies can be perfectly distributed every time. The pot has a long-lasting non-stick coating, which releases food excellently and is easy to clean. The perfect gift for the baker.
