OUR SERVICES

Translatable LLC is experienced in providing data annotation, translation and transcription services. We are experienced in annotating linguistic data on various platforms for major non-disclosable clients. Prior work includes data labeling and chatbot dialogue creation. Our business specializes in Spanish to English translation and localization services. Additionally, we provide transcription and subtitling services. Translatable LLC stands committed to helping customers succeed in meeting the digital demands of our technology-driven society.

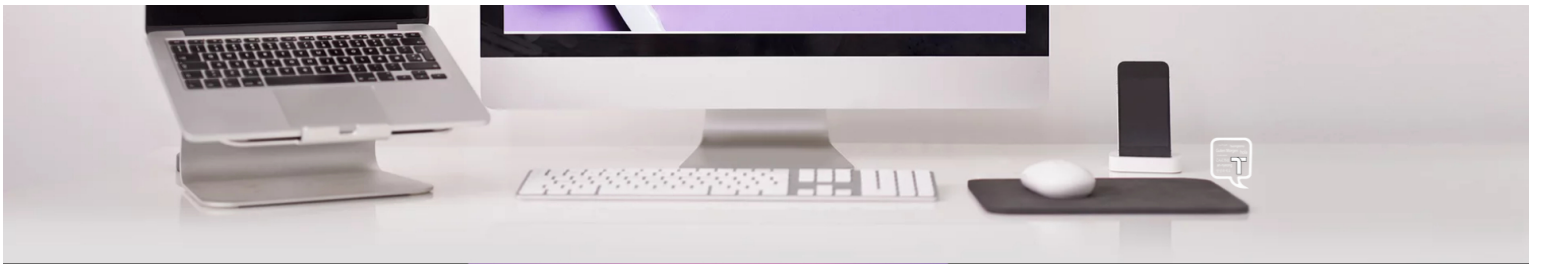

Document Translation

We provide translation and localization services performed by a human translator aided by computer-assisted technology. Machine assisted translation allows large volumes of text to be translated at rapid speeds. Each text must pass through an extensive postediting review process. We combine machine efficiency with human capability to provide you with accurate and consistent translations. Our company streamlines the translation process which in turn saves you time and money.
