The Upside of CBD Cream

Get professional-level relief with no funky chemicals.

Free yourself from fatigue with fast-acting relief.

Quick relief lets you get back to your routine.

How to Use CBD Topical Cream

1. Apply CBD cream topically to whatever ails you.
2. Massage the area well.
3. Let the cool tingling sensation work its magic.

Make fatigued muscles and aching joints a thing of the past fast. Formulated with professional athletes in mind, Soul's Rapid Relief CBD Cream contains 500 mg of CBD isolate and soothing menthol that goes on easy and knocks out tension in a dash.

You don't have to work out like a pro to recover like one. Soul Rapid Relief Cream is suitable for everyone from Iron Men and Women to weekend warriors. For more relief, don't forget to check out our CBD drops, infused gummies, and bath bombs.

I have had a ton

I have had a ton of knee pain from a strain during a workout and this stuff has been amazing relief. It takes away the soreness and helps muscle cramps as well. I love that it's not overly greasy and smells good!

 Glad to hear you're finding relief with our Rapid Relief Cream, Chelsea!

You've got 99 questions, but CBD ain't one.

Let's separate the CBD facts from fiction, shall we?

WILL I GET HIGH?

No, you can't get high off of Hemp Extract CBD. Our products are all derived from industrial grade hemp, and we have no psychoactive elements in any of our products. \(Read More\)

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HEMP AND MARIJUANA?

Our products are all derived from hemp. One of the benefits of getting your CBD from hemp, rather than marijuana, is hemp's low THC level (<0.03%), which allows for a higher CBD intake with none of the psychoactive effects of THC. \(Read More\)
