Dragonflying Glitter for cosmetic purposes,Mixed Glitter Powder

It's nice quality glitter but wasn't the color I expected. Didn't use this color because of that, but the other color went on easily.

Dragonflying Glitter for cosmetic purposes,Mixed Glitter Powder

This glitter is beautiful, very fine, and if you put a little glitter primer on stays great! I was getting glitter palettes for a while, but only using a few colors and wasting the rest, so for me these make more sense! I feel like one of these will last a while, so it's worth it in my opinion. Will probably order more colors soon.

Dragonflying Glitter for cosmetic purposes,Mixed Glitter Powder

Great fine cosmetic glitter. I used it to mix in with some other glitters and mica powders to make body glitter gels and eyeshadows.
