ABLE X SOLES4SOULS

It's no secret that ABLE is all about empowering women to end the cycle of poverty in their communities. That's why we're so excited to partner with Soles4Souls to continue empowering women, improving the planet, and fighting poverty. Here's how to get involved:

- Gather your gently used ABLE pieces.
- Come by our flagship store to drop off inside.
- See a store associate for a 15% off discount toward your next ABLE purchase.

When you give, you help people in developing countries launch and sustain their own small businesses selling your donated shoes and clothing. Not only are you helping build communities, you're helping the environment by eliminating unnecessary waste. By collecting discarded shoes and clothing, Soles4Souls has kept 66 million pounds of textiles out of U.S. landfills.
