★★★★★ Where have these been all my life!?!?
Reviewed in the United States on May 2, 2019

I had no idea these existed, but I would have saved a lot of money and hassle buying various hair pins over the years. These are amazing. I have very thick, curly hair that is so heavy it gives me a headache to wear it in a ponytail for very long. With just 2 of these clips I can get all of my hair up off my neck in a twist. Love, love, love them. The trick is you have to put them in right in right; you stick the two pointy ends in your twist, then push upward into the twist to really grab your hair, then REVERSE direction by flipping the U-end outward and over and pushing down. There are youtube videos you can watch. It's all in the technique. Definitely worth it.

★★★★★ Sturdy but no gripping ability

I was excited to try these after reading the reviews. They are heavy duty and the bends do help them stay in but in hair like mine that is heavy and smooth, they just don't have any grip. I can put up a bun and 5 or 6 of them seem to hold it securely, but if I go out for a walk, by the time I've gone one block, they are all sliding out. The ends are nicely rounded, they are pretty comfortable to wear, but they just don't hold my hair. I'll be going back to Frenchies.

★★★★★ Durable and great

I do ballet and am very picky about the hair pins I use. I wasn't able to find the ones I usually use, so I decided to try these hair pins. They are the perfect size and are thick, which is important to me. They won't bend easily (if at all) and won't break. They also hold my hair more sturdily and I know that it won't fall down. My individual strands of hair are thin, but I have a lot of them, so it's weirdly thick but doesn't like to stay in place. These bobby pins are perfect for holding my hair. There aren't a ton of pins that come in the pack, but assuming you don't lose too many, there should be plenty!

★★★★★ Please bring back lighter color

These are the best hair pins, and I have tried them all. They hold a lot of weight and don't budge (unless I sleep on them). They are almost invisible when inserted correctly. I never feel them on my scalp. I want to buy more in the light brown/tan blonde color. Please make them available again.

I am almost 70 years old and decided to be an "old lady with a bun"! I have thick long hair and nothing would hold it - two or three of these pins holds it all day! I am amazed! Don't hesitate - get some!

★★★★★ BEST HAIR PINS FOR LARGE BUNS
Reviewed in the United States on June 25, 2021
Size: 3 Inch (Pack of 12) | Color: black | Verified Purchase

These are miracle hair pins for very long hair buns. I have tried every hair pin out there—Amish hairpins are super BUT THESE are even better at distributing weight of bun. Total game changer. So comfortable. The true beauty of these are they seem to flex when moving your head so there is no pulling sensation on scalp fatigue. Somehow the design sort of locks but flexes and stays put without hairpins slipping out or scalp fatigue. Arch part of hairpin fits bun making it look fuller and these hold magnificent even if bun is made not as tight. Thank you for offering these, Amazon, as I have not found them offered anywhere but here. I will purchase more as I never want to be without these!

★★★★★ Hurt my daughter's head

My daughter will not let me use them. We tried several times, they dig into her head. They really need the protective coating on the ends. They are sharp and pointed, thus making them unusable.

I have four daughters and all four of them are dancers. We typically use the Capzio brand pins, it a friend of mine suggested to use these. I have been so happy with them! The pins hold ballet buns so well! Even after a ballet class, a tap class, and a jazz class, my daughters have all said their hair is still tightly in place.
