PK Grills Barbecue grill, Portable Charcoal Barbecue Grill, Fold

Easy to put together and use. The top grill (that the food is put onto) is three separate pieces linked together. The grill that the charcoal sits on is one solid piece. Easy to clean and shake out once cool. Easy enough to clean the grill pieces.

I love this grill! I have used it a few times since I purchased it and it works so well and is the perfect size. It holds a good amount of food and I highly recommend this grill! I use it for camping and as a quick setup grill in the yard at home. It's perfect!

This is a perfect little grill. I put some aluminum foil down before I put the charcoal in. It cooks perfectly. The stainless steel grill cleans up nicely with a brillo pad. I discarded the cold ashes with the foil and it looks like it was never used. It didn't warp at all.

PK Grills Barbecue grill, Portable Charcoal Barbecue Grill, Fold

We love this portable, inexpensive little grill. You can fold it up when not in use. Because of the size, you don't waste charcoal. Your food is the ideal distance from the heat for perfect grilling. The grill lasted about one BBQ season in Texas(which is about 80% of the year). Throw it away with no guilt and get another next season because it's so inexpensive. Best part is no ugly, rusty, monstrosity of a grill to look at in your backyard. It's literally perfect.

PK Grills Barbecue grill, Portable Charcoal Barbecue Grill, Fold

This is just perfect for a home or garage with less space. It does not have to be assembled (except opening it up) and it closes to a very narrow depth. Very easy to carry wherever you want it (it has a built-in handle. I can use a large or small cooking area, my choice. This is exactly what I wanted. Very sturdy, highly recommend.

PK Grills Barbecue grill, Portable Charcoal Barbecue Grill, Fold

This thing was amazing!! I took it on a beach camping trip over a long weekend. It is sturdy, sets up easily, is a good size for two-person grilling, and SO portable! I have a subcompact car and needed camping gear which folds up really small. This fit the bill!
