I really liked the quality of these 260 balloons. I use them to tie additional balloons to my garlands and they haven't disappoint me. I also use them to tie down the balloon garland to the base and they work great. I would totally buy these again but they are out of stock. I really needed more, I hope they come back in stock soon.

★★★★★ Great balloons for garlands

Reviewed in the United States on April 22, 2021

I'm sure they would be easy to inflate but I used these balloons for my balloon garland set up instead of string or the plastic roll it comes with. Very useful!! I love how I use less with these and it comes a long ways! Highly recommend.

★☆☆☆☆ DIRTY!!!

Disgusting and dirty. Before even opening these I noticed they are dirty with something brown on them and inside the balloon. That's what you get when ordering garbage from China. DIRTY!!!

★★★★★ Yep they're balloons

Reviewed in the United States on October 15, 2019

As advertised, shipped quick.

I stretched the hell out them to loosen them up but still hard to blow up by mouth. They're more heavy duty than others I've used and seem like they would be much more durable for making animals and such. Better have a tank to blow them up though. I could only do 3 (by mouth) before I called it quits.

★★★★☆ Very strong and very dirty

Reviewed in the United States on August 11, 2021

Very strong is good when you are twisting and making balloon Animals. But I could NOT blow up by mouth (and I have been playing trumpet over 40 years) but trying to is how I found out they are very dirty on the inside. (I know UG) So I blow them up with my bike pump and a ball pin and that works great. And that is also why I am keeping them.

★★★★★ Worked for balloon arch.

Reviewed in the United States on September 1, 2021

We used these balloons to tie together a balloon arch. They worked better than the tape strips that vine with the balloon kits. Didn't inflate just used to tie balloons together.

I used these to assemble balloons for a balloon garland. They were easy to assemble with and very stretchy. The garland looked great!
