★★★★☆ Small IPX7 waterproof body clipper gets the job done. Relatively small handle.

Integrated LED light

Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

There are a crazy number of clippers available for sale at Amazon at this point. There are large one for the top of your head. More narrow ones that are better for focused trimming like beard and the back of the neck, although they can be used for hair anywhere on your body. And then you have clippers like this one which are waterproof and relatively small, and are focused pretty specifically on the kinds of body hair you might want to wash in the shower.

To aid in this goal, they're waterproof rated so you can use them in the shower. They also integrate a low lumen LED light--unusual for clippers. Beyond that, the clippers are quite small--significantly shorter than most clippers. This will help some with maneuverability around sensitive areas. Speaking of sensitive areas, the motor and drive components are all fully enclosed here--unlike common "T-blade" clippers. That means there's no chance your sensitive hairs are going to get caught in the gears. Pfew!

This particular set of clippers is branded as Model ZP-5102. The same model can be found in some listings under different names, so shop around.
