Merdeco 6mm 8mm Tungsten Carbide Ring 14K Gold Matte Brushed Wed

I already have this ring in a larger size and bought a smaller one since I've lost some weight recently. It's a great ring that looks good and is comfortable. Would definitely recommend for a cheap ring that looks great.

The Macy's ring didn't fit my husband, and they did not have his proper size in stock. Bought this one as a replacement and you cannot tell the two rings apart, despite the huge disparity in pricing. Maybe the Macy's ring would have lasted longer, but at this price, I can just buy another if the luster fades!

Merdeco 6mm 8mm Tungsten Carbide Ring 14K Gold Matte Brushed Wed

After many years of marriage I lost my 14 karat gold wedding ring, which cost around $600 if memory serves. I saw no point in shelling out a lot of money for a replacement, I decided on this $30 tungsten carbide model from Merdeco. I personally think it looks better than the original, and it has not lost any of its luster over the initial months. As I get older it is hard to justify overspending on jewelry. In the relatively short time I have worn this ring I have gotten more compliments than I ever did on the gold ring.
