

NEW RULES® is a real estate collective focused on taking unproductive and overlooked buildings + land in Black & Brown communities and turning them into innovation hubs that address economic, education & health disparities . To counteract the years of divestment and inherent extractive nature of real estate , NEW RULES is modeling new behaviors to create thoughtful developments and activations at the intersection of community , food , events & workspace .

